PRESS RELEASE

BEIJING, THE GATE TO CHINA, LEADS THE DUTCH S.G.O.R. 2009 ISP PARTICIPANTS TO LEHMAN, LEE & XU

Beijing, China – May 6, 2009 – Participants to the 2009 International Study Project (ISP) “Beijing: the gate to China?” organized by the Studenten Genootschap voor Onderneming en Recht (Students Association for Company & Law, a.k.a. SGOR), a Dutch association connected to the University of Groningen in the Netherlands, visited the Beijing office of Lehman, Lee & Xu on April 28, 2009.

The project is aimed at providing participants with insights into the Chinese legal system. The Organization has selected Lehman, Lee & Xu as the exclusive Chinese law firm for its research project.

The Firm’s associates Cindy Kang, Anna Lei and Eion Murdock presented a series of lectures on trademark and copyright law, reviewing trademark cancellation actions, the requirements for registration of design patents, and main issues relating to copyright protection and intellectual property rights enforcement in China.

Lehman, Lee & Xu regularly receives students from overseas Universities, providing them with an insight into the legal profession in China, in particular in the field of Intellectual Property protection which remains a critical issue for foreign investors in China.
