PRESS RELEASE

The State Council’s Principally Passes Vehicle And Vessel Tax Law

Beijing, China – Oct 28, 2010

The executive meeting of the State Council on 12th October discussed and principally passed The Vehicle and Vessel Tax Law of the PRC (Draft). The meeting decided, after further amendment of the draft, that will be submitted by the State Council to the Standing Committee of the National People’s Congress for consideration. It is reported that the new policy of vehicle and vessel tax is mainly in the following aspects: passenger vehicles shall collect taxes according to 7 levels, the tax burden on passenger vehicles with less than 1.0 litre of emission volume shall be alleviated, tax on main vehicle type shall be properly raised, and tax on vehicles with large emission volume shall be sharply increased. The purpose of implementing progressive tax by collecting taxes according to different emission volumes is to encourage the development of vehicles with small emission volumes and to guide consumers to save energy and reduce emissions.

Lehman, Lee & Xu is a prominent Chinese corporate law firm and trademark and patent agency with offices in Beijing, Shanghai, Shenzhen, Hong Kong, Macau, and Mongolia. The firm has been recognized as one of the top trademark firms in China by several intellectual property magazines and is managed by Mr. Edward Lehman, a leading expert on corporate law with 20 years of practice experience in Mainland China.

To learn more about us, please visit our website at www.lehmanlaw.com.